

DILLSBURG BANNER

Volume III Number 33

July 12, 1990

Twenty-five cents

Memphord Estate residents express safety concerns of one-lane bridge

By Deb Recker

At the June meeting of the Monaghan Township Board of Supervisors, Chairman Jacob J. Cottenham, Vice Chairman R. Wayne Miller Jr. and Supervisor Lloyd R. Persun discussed safety concerns received from Memphord Estate residents. Residents expressed their views in a letter citing concerns for safety at the one-lane bridge on Siddonsburg Road. Memphord residents requested that the township take action to position yield signs or yield ahead at bridge signs accordingly.

Officials noted the bridge is not located in Monaghan Township, but is in Carroll Township. It was also noted that a "one-lane bridge ahead" sign is posted in Monaghan Township along Siddonsburg Road. The Board agreed to speak to Carroll Township's Chief of Police on the matter and also to notify PennDOT of residents concerns.

Secretary Gregory Spear reported that Township Engineer Carl Spataro has updated the official township address map. The map can be seen at the township office for verification and/or viewing.

Township Solicitor Niles Benn was asked to review and compare Error and Omissions coverage between the Employer's Mutual and Scottsdale insurance policies as presented. Present coverage is due to expire July 7, 1990.

The Monaghan Township Volunteer Fire Department answered eight (8) alarms in June. Two (2) alarms were in Carroll, four (4) in Upper Allen, one (1) in Warrington and one (1) in Monroe Township.

The fire department will be holding their annual Firemen's Festival on July 20 and 21 adjacent to the Fire Hall.

Carroll Township police officer, Corporal Ray Taylor, reported that in Monaghan Township for the month of June a total of forty-two (42) calls answered and $78.50 collected in fines.

The treasurer's report was accepted as filed by Treasurer Frederic Redislob.

The next monthly meeting of the Board will be August 6, 1990.

Bill to compete in Keystone Games

Tanya Biller of Dillsburg, will be among 6,000 Pennsylvania amateur athletes to compete in the 1990 Keystone State Summer Games finals scheduled for August 1-5th in the Lehigh Valley area of Allentown, Bethlehem and Easton. Tanya has entered the soccer competition-scholastic Division for the Capital Region. Tanya also competed in the Keystone State Games soccer the last two years.

Tanya will be a junior student at Northern Senior High School. She is the son/daughter of Gilbert and Jessie Biller, 28 Sunny Lane, Dillsburg.

Tonya is an employee of Dairy Queen, on Route 15 in Dillsburg. The Keystone State Games are patterned after the Olympic program and will award gold, silver and bronze medals in each division of 33 sports at the finals competitions.

Tanya Biller

Seminar on farming changes in the 1990's

A summer seminar entitled "Focus on Changes for Farming in the 90's" will be held Thursday, July 19, 1990 from 1 to 3:30 p.m., Friday, July 20, 1990 from 8:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. and Saturday, July 21, 1990 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Chalet Restaurant, 301 U.S. Route 15, Dillsburg, Pa. The public is invited.

Featured speakers include Dr. Dan Show, whose topic will be "Don't Eat the Seeds"; Dr. Akhtar Khawja will speak on "The Plant and Soil Nutrients as Affected by Nitro/Max"; Arden Anderson of Stanton, Michigan will discuss "Energy Engineering: Farming in the 21st century". Other speakers include Jerry Carlson, Senior Editor of Professional Farmer of America and Editor of Landowner Newsletter; Dr. Louis Meyer, Director of Pennsylvania Institute of Community Services, Edinboro, Pa.; Charles Walters, Editor of Acres U.S.A., and Margaret Phillips, a representative from LaMotte Chemical Company.

On Friday evening at 6:30 p.m. at the banquet, Orville Carver, State Director of Green Thumb and well known after dinner speaker and humorist, will address the group.

Jane M. Alexander, President of J & J Agri-Products will be introducing the speakers and guests.

Dave Scott, a graduate of East Stroudsburg University, and employed by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture since 1978, will be here on July 19th from 2:30 to 3 p.m. One core credit for the pesticide training update will be given for attending.

On Saturday, July 21st, there will be a Farmer and Dealer Panel Discussion with them for Questions and Answers.

At 4:30 p.m. on July 21st, there will be a picnic at Green Vista Farms, York Springs, Pa. George Heath will give a demonstration on Aer-Way, a machine to revitalize your soil.

The seminar is sponsored by: J & J Agri-Products and Services, Inc., 220 South Second Street, Dillsburg, Pa. 17019. For Reservations, call 1-800-233-0138 or locally 432-2461. Seminar fee: $75.00 per person or $90.00 per husband and wife.

Photo by David March

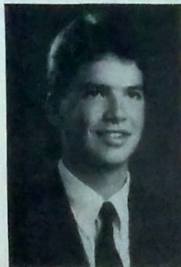

Friday the 13th. If you are superstitious, don't let this little guy cross your path this Friday. Go find yourself a four leaf clover and go to bed.

Fetterolf receives honors

The following Dillsburg Area Student was honored at Harrisburg Area Community College's Honors Convocation held prior to commencement on May 12, 1990.

Honored was John F. Fetterolf II, Outstanding Sophomore Mechanical Engineering Technology Student Award, based on academic achievement, and SUNY Institute of Technology Medal for Academic Excellence, given by the State University of New York College of Technology at Utica/Rome. This award is based on academic excellence in the technology area.

Ceo awarded scholarship

Marco Ceo

Marco Ceo, a 1988 graduate of Northern Senior High School, has been awarded the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation/Marion Laboratories $1,000.00 scholarship for the second consecutive year.

The scholarship is awarded on an academic basis to dependents of Marion Merrell Dow employees.

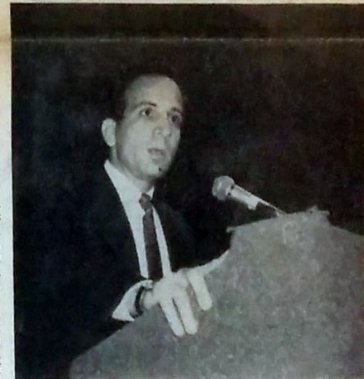

Marco will be a junior at West Virginia University where he is in the school of journalism and has maintained a Dean's list standing of 3.5 GPA. He is also a member of Sigma Chi Fraternity.

Marco is the son of Jerry and Barbara Ceo of 26 S. Second Street, Dillsburg.

Williams choses as outstanding student

The Academy of Medical Arts and Business held its 31 graduation on Friday, June 29, 1990. Sixty-three students successfully completed classroom and laboratory training as well as an internship in the Medical Assistant, Medical Secretary, Dental Assistant, Paralegal, and Computer Entry Programs.

The outstanding students from each program were given special awards for their high achievements. Among these students was Patricia Williams of Dillsburg in the Dental Assistant Program.

James R. Ronca

Ronca receives award

James R. Ronca of the law firm Schmidt and Ronca, P.A., in Harrisburg, was recently honored by the Philadelphia Trial Lawyers Association at their Annual Meeting held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Martin Greitzer, President of the Association, presented Ronca with the President's Award for his contribution to progressive legislation through advocacy in the halls of the State Legislature, interpretation and analysis of the law by his writing of books and articles in legal publications and planning and teaching at seminars, and the promotion of liberty and justice through zealous representation of clients in a court of law.

Dickinson Law School and is Vice President of the Pennsylvania Trial Lawyers Association (PaTLA). In addition to his many speaking engagements, he is co-chairman of PaTLA's Legislative Policy Committee and a member of many of PaTLA's other committees. Ronca is the author of the Pennsylvania Motor Vehicle Insurance Act - An Analysis of the New Financial Responsibility Law, and a recipient of many awards for his efforts to promote continuing education among his colleagues. Ronca, is married to Patricia Ronca, an R.N. They live in Dillsburg with their two children, Marissa, age 13, and Matthew, age 10.

Lehman-Kramer engagement

Maynard and Pamela Lehman of Dillsburg have announced the engagement of their daughter, Kelli Lehman, to Curt Kramer, son of Royal and Charlotte Kramer of Allentown.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Northern High School and the Central Pennsylvania Business School. She is senior secretary with Keystone Financial, Inc.

Her fiancé was graduated from Dieuff High School, Allentown, and Messiah College. He is a programmer analyst with AMP Inc.

Levine named to Dean's list

Diana Levine, a Political Science major at IUP, has been named to the Dean's List with a 4.0 grade point average for the spring semester.

Diana, who will be a sophomore this fall, is the daughter of John and Cathy Levine of 911 S. Mountain Road.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU:

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the following sponsors of our program advertisement for the Big 33 Football Classic: Lyle H. McKeever, PumpDoctors; Lorne Seifert, Seifert Concrete; John Thran, Thran Well Drilling; Robert Myers, Myers Food Rite. Also a special thanks to Greg Vasquez and Julie Fasano of Lasting Impressions for their creativity on the art work and Mark Ryder and David March for the photograph.

Jody Smith and Tiffany Taylor
Northern High School Cheerleaders